John,

Do you have time tomorrow to meet with some folks from Pennsylvania and do a presentation on the FEFP?

Patricia

Patricia,

Hi. By this email, I want to connect you with John Cape and Randy Bauerr with PFM, who serve as financial advisors to the PA Budget Office. PFM is engaged with us currently on a project around education funding, developing a model for us to use to hopefully transition a number of our categorical basic education funding line items to a weighted student funding model not unlike the FEFP in FL. John and Randy are going to be in Tallahassee next Tuesday and were interested in meeting with you or perhaps someone from your team to get more insight on the FL model. So you know, I also reached out to Brewser to get his thoughts as to someone on the Hill or at DOE that might be good for them to connect with as well. You may also have some thoughts on that. I very much appreciate and want to thank you again your help.

John and Randy, I will leave it to you two to connect directly with Patricia. She serves as the ED of Jeb Bush's Excellence in Education Foundation (link here: <http://excelined.org/Default.aspx>). There are few more knowledgeable about FL education policy and none better nationally than her boss. You will be in good hands.

Please let me know if there is anything else I can do in the way of facilitation.

Thanks,

Charles
