Looking forward to the "further thoughts"...I'll add mine to it also. Clark always has great ideas on stuff like this so I talked with him about "ideals" and reflected the outcomes of our conversation in there. WHAT FUN! It's so important to question things and focus on improvement/evolution! Glad you like it!

Heather

BTW, the food cart called Spring Creek behind turlington by park is AWESOME for lunch in the park. ;-)

Okay, so you are the 🌟! This is fantastic and so good to see an "outsiders" view (not that I ever consider you and outsider); When I'm so close to it, it is sometimes hard to get out of the rut of "well, this is how we do it, and it's working" but the question that should come to mind for me is "can we make it work better?", always striving for higher standards. I love the document you crafted and it does make good sense. When I've got some time, I'll review and include comments for further thought.

You are a true friend responding to this "work related" question. Thanks Heather!

Sincerely,
Cari

Waiting on Karen to confirm something for me about IDEA-CEIS funds for me...will let you know ASAP...not sure she's here today.

I have something for you, but I may have some more to add so I was holding off...but rather than wait, you can see my brainstorm so far. See attached. This is a thrilling assignment from my friend!!!

Can the funding be used for intervention services provided before/after school; what about summer reading camp?
