Thanks, Cari. Linda said that the Braille version of FAIR has messed up graphics and such...anyway I'll let Linda know that she can use the Oregon version of DIBELS. And I wasn't clear on the "system" – I meant the automated student database.

I'm glad Camryn has an official Crossbridge t-shirt! We'd love to have you and Greg come visit sometime as well ☺

Hi Laurie!

Good to hear from you. I'm not sure how DIBELS would be better for this purpose, but they are welcome to use it, HOWEVER, it wouldn't be reported through our system. Unfortunately, PMRN only includes FAIR and FLKRS.

I hope this helps!
Cari

PS. Cam went with a friend to your church two weekends ago. She now owns a Crossbridge t-shirt! ☺ It reminds me of you when she wears it.

Subject: Question for you

Cari,

Okay...so I try not to bother you too much with questions from your old life – but I'm by myself today and have a question from Linda Gaughn about DIBELS. She's looking for an assessment for her elementary blind/visually impaired students. FAIR really isn't working out for them. She asked if she could purchase DIBELS from Oregon and report the scores through our system. DIBELS is DIBELS, right? There's no specific DIBELS for Florida is there?

Thanks so much for your help with this one! Let's get together for lunch sometime soon ☺
