Cari,

You are probably having a big party in the office now, but I wanted to send you best wishes as you take on this new opportunity in your career.

You have done a wonderful job in the Just Read, Florida! office over the years in your various job roles. You are certainly well-respected and always willing to take the time to answer the many questions that come your way.

I enjoyed the few days we spent together in Orlando working on the kindergarten civics lessons. We seem to have the same thoughts about early childhood education.

Great success to you and your family!

Subject: Farewell

Dear All,

I'm writing to share that it is time for me to say farewell. I've recently been offered a position with the Foundation for Excellence in Education and I've accepted that position. My last day with Just Read, Florida! is Friday, September 23rd. It's bitter sweet for me, but I'm looking forward to supporting the Foundation's work to improve education across the nation. I began my Just Read, Florida! journey seven years ago with the sole mission to improve student learning in reading. We have come such a long way together, and I look forward to watching the trajectory of student improvement in this state continue to rise as a result of your work and the continued support of the Just Read, Florida! office.

Thank you for your perseverance and commitment to the implementation of quality reading instruction in your district. Your sincere dedication and diligent work to ensure that teachers are knowledgeable of and utilize best practices in reading has improved student achievement. You, our district leaders, have been the catalyst for change and are to be commended.

I've thoroughly enjoyed my seven years of work with all of you. You have been a wonderful group to work with and I have learned a great deal from each and every one of you. I can't thank you enough for your support and partnership in the mission of improving student reading achievement in our state. I will miss you all!

If you need anything, please do not hesitate to contact me. My new contact information is below.
