

From: Elzie, Bo
Sent time: Friday, January 20, 2012 10:07:45 AM
To: Cari Miller (Cari@excelined.org) <Cari@excelined.org>
Subject: RE: HELLO Bo

Sorry – I’ve been out of town. There were early discussions about selling FAIR to other states, but Commissioner Smith and Chancellor Haithcock did not want to go there yet because, at that time, it was so unstable. I suppose the issue could be raised again – but Stu would be the one to do that, don’t you think?

Sincerely,

Bo Elzie
Project Director
Race to the Top Struggling Schools
850.245.9858

From: Cari Miller (Cari@excelined.org) [mailto:Cari@excelined.org]
Sent: Wednesday, January 18, 2012 3:56 PM
To: Elzie, Bo
Subject: HELLO Bo

Between you and me: I need your institutional memory on the discussion a couple years back on “selling” FAIR. Do you recall any Florida Statutes prohibiting the Department to sell such product to ensure FAIR is continually provided free of charge to districts? FYI-they are paying for it now (if they want hard copies, they have to pay for it). I’ve skimmed through the statutes and don’t see any language prohibiting the Department to sell anything, but it’s a LARGE book, so not sure if I’m missing something.

Any insight you have on this would be great! Thanks Bo.

Sincerely,
Cari Miller
Policy Advisor
Foundation for Excellence in Education
Cari@excelined.org
850-491-8556