Subject: Follow Up: High School Grades Release

Dear Superintendents:

Below is summary information on the impact on high school grades of the at-risk graduation rate requirement and the adequate progress requirement for the Low 25% as requested on this morning's conference call.

For school year 2010-11, the total number of high schools and combination high schools that received a grade lower than would have been earned solely on total points = 198.

Number dropping from A to B = 170

- 53 dropped solely because of the at-risk graduation rate
- 79 dropped solely because of the Low 25 Adequate Progress requirement
- 38 dropped because of both

Number dropping from B to C = 11 (Adequate Progress for Low 25% only)

Number dropping from C to D = 17 (Adequate Progress for Low 25% only)

For school year 2009-10, the total number of high schools and combination high schools that received a grade lower than would have been earned solely on total points = 222.

Number dropping from A to B = 152

- 18 dropped solely because of the at-risk graduation rate
- 112 dropped solely because of the Low 25 Adequate Progress requirement
- 22 dropped because of both

Number dropping from B to C = 32 (Adequate Progress for Low 25% only)

Number dropping from C to D = 38 (Adequate Progress for Low 25% only)

You will receive information later today regarding the appeals process for high school grades.
