Mary Laura,

Even though it was a long way to go, I really enjoyed the workshop. Thanks for inviting me. I'd certainly be interested in participating in the future.

On the ESEA waiver, the point person is Mike Grego. He is remaining on board (at least in the short term) to lead this process.

Thanks,
Juan

First of all, thanks for your participation last week. I know it was a ridiculously long travel experience for a two hour workshop, but the feedback we already gotten has been great. We will probably do some more of these, so let me know if you are interested.

Do you know who is the point person at DOE for the ESEA waiver process? I'm assuming it will be Pam Stewart, but it may not be.

Thanks!

ML
