While we have not created a formal alignment, we have looked at this assessment and I believe it generally aligns. The early learning coalition of SW Florida uses this assessment with their providers and its use is supported by the early learning coalition advisory council. Kathleen Reynolds in Fort Myers is the executive director of the SWFL early learning coalition and she is deeply involved in the organization and implementation of this assessment in her area—you may want to contact her regarding implementation.

Does the following measure up to our PreK standards? Should I ask Tara instead? See you in a bit!
