oh, I hope my voice mail to Cari isn't what may have upset you. I really was just kidding, and thought it was ironic that i was pulling together stuff from when you two were in the office:) it really was fine:)

Please feel free to ask for anything- I am here to help!.

Did you get what you needed?

we missed you Friday night!!

For the record, I never requested ANY of the stuff Stu had you and Suzette compile on grants. And I'm really sorry that you had to do it.

Thanks, Martha. I'm still sorry about the misunderstanding.

This is what I requested - cut and pasted from what I gave to Pam and Loretta on Feb 6.

Funding

(probably easiest to get from grants management - all we need is the original grant approval form - we don't need the amounts granted to each district within one pot of money)

* From 2000-2002, federal or state money given to JRF or Curriculum/Instruction (under Don Greisheimer/Bo Elzie) for reading, either for statewide activities or for grants to districts, consortia or universities

* From 2002-2012, federal or state money given to JRF for reading - either for statewide activities or for grants given to districts, consortia or universities

And as a follow up email to Loretta on 2/23, I said this:

I need to be responsive to the Commissioner - I am fine calling Martha Asbury directly on the funding information I requested. If I need to send someone over there to go through the paperwork, I can.

And then yesterday morning, I emailed this to Stu:

For the pre-2005 information, I am happy to come over and look through the filing cabinet in the JRF office - all I need for those years is the original grant approval form - I don't need any district allocations or state appropriation information - I have the proviso from each year's budget that tells me that. What I want is the funding source (federal and state) for the grants we gave 2000-2005 before the JRF office was formed, and then through 2005. What I want to examine is the source of the federal discretionary funds we used to start projects like FOR-PD and the initial grant to FCRR, and the Research-based Reading Grant, etc.

But anyway...here is what I need:

An rfp for Research-based reading grants - 3 million in federal discretionary funds. I don't need who was awarded, or the rfp. I just want that first page of the grant - or maybe even the pre-approval that identifies the funding source.

An rfp for the Florida Center for Reading Research. Stu sent a scanned copy of a nce from that project - but not the original. I attached it.

An rfp for the Online Professional Development course (awarded to UCF) for 2 million in existing federal funds.

Thanks. Hope you have a good weekend.

Hey Martha,

I hope you are well.

Do you have a minute this afternoon for a very quick question? I want to ask you if something is even do-able before I ask Stu Greenberg to do it :)

If you do have time, what's the best number for me to call? Or you can call me at 391.3077.

Thanks,

Mary Laura
