It's a go! I did talk to Lynn Stanfield as well so we should be good if you can get John Watson, Tom VanderArk and yourself!

Lynn,

I am sorry to do this piecemeal but given the timeframe I thought it might be the best way.

John Watson is with Evergreen Education Group which produces an annual report on state online and blended learning called the Keeping Pace Report. <http://kpk12.com/> He is very knowledgeable about what is happening in states around the country.

Would you like me to reach out to him to check his availability?

Also, Tom Vander Ark who is our consultant on Digital Learning Now! is available and can join me in that presentation.

Let me know and I will make the introductions.

Thanks, Deirdre
